LILLIE PRATT FOUND.

HALL DISCLOSES HER HIDING-PLACE. TR 18 PUT UNDER ARREST-A CHARGE OF KIDNAP-

PING TO BE PRESSED. Sergeant Westervelt and Detective James K.
Price escorted a prisener into the Thirtieth Street Police Station at dusk last night. The man was of elight figure, under the average height with a weak-looking face set of by eyes that were red and watery. A small blond mustache hid his upper lip. Sergeant Cross ad dressed him the usual questions and made the following record on the station blotter:

George Hall are thicky and English unbolsters.

Westerveit and Detective Price, charged with kidnapging Lilie Pratt.

The story of Hall's abduction of his little girl from the house of Mrs. Pratt, No. 24 West Thirthieth-st, and his flight through the street with the screaming child in his arms was told in yesterday's TRIBUNE. All day yesterday Price and Westevelt kept up a vigorous search for Hall. Toward nightfall he was traced to No. 211 West
Twenty-seventh-st., where he had a room.
When the officers arrested him he was sitting in the parlor talking to his landlady, Mrs. Murray. Price asked him if he had the little girl with him. Both he and Mrs. Murray denied that Lilie was in the house and a search failed to find her. He refused to say where she was. At the station he was told that the only object of the police was to know that the child was in proper hands. Hall then said that if that was all that they wanted to know he would take them to the child and show them that she was all right.

If that was all that they wanted to know he would take them to the child and show them that she was all right.

The three men got into a carriage and Hall told the driver to drive to No. 200 East Eleventh-st. there the child was found in the family of Licerge liusse. Mr. Busse is the head upholster crat the Victoria Hotel and is Hall's boss. He manifested considerable opposition to the two officers taking the child with them. He insisted that his house was his castle and they must produce a warrant. They took Lillie, however, to the station where she was delivered into the custody of an officer of the Society for the Prevention of Crucity to Children.

Lillie had had her clothing changed during the night. She cried and clung to her father when she was being separated from him.

"I want to stay with papa" che said.

"I never would have told you where she was if I had known you were going to take her from Mr. Busse," said Hall.

His words were cut short and he was hustled into a cell to spend the night. A telegram was sent to Mrs. Pratt at Saratoga telling her that her child had been found. She repited immediately:

Leave nothing undone to prevent George Hall and my child from leaving New York City.

At Mrs. Pratt's house it was said that she would come on from Saratoga and be present to-day to make a complaint of kiduapping against Hall. The pealty for that crime is not more than fifteen years' imprisonment. Hall was seen in cell his last night and told this story of the affair:

I signed those respect giving up my right to my child because I was influenced by Mrs. Pratt. Yet I made her promise he two things: that I should be allowed to come and see the child and that she should be allowed to come and see the child and that she should be allowed to come and see the child and that she should be allowed to come and see the child and that she should be allowed to come and see the child and that she should be allowed to come and see the child and that she should be allowed to come and see the child and that she shou "THE DIAMOND COMPANY, LIMITED."

An enticing circular has recently been sent to many business men of the city. It begins with the announcement that "books for subscriptions to the capital stock of the Diamond Company, Limited, are opened " and the public are respectfully invited to absorb the shares, to the number of 20,000 at $100 cach.. The circular is signed by Roswell W. Keene, No. 280 Broadway, NewYork, and a written reference was made upon a copy which came to The Tribuys. to the American Loan and Trust Company, No. 113 Broadway. A reporter was sent to investigate the matter. Mr. Snow, who was in charge of the office of the Company, upon being shown the printed circular and asked concerning it. Said that some time ago he had been called upon by persons who said they spoke in behalf of the "Diamond Company, Limited," and desired the institution over which, Mr. Snow presides to become its financial agent. To that proposition a decided negative was given, and it was then suggested that the American Loan and Trust Company should receive the deposits of the "Diamond Company Limited," To this Mr. Snow made response that it would be time enough to consider the matter when the deposits made their appearance at the receiving feller's counter. Mr. Snow said further, that he had never before nor has he since, known saything of the persons, or the enterprise, and ended his talk upon the matter with this summary of financial lore; "Moneyel institutions cannot Safely indorse or recommend anything or suybody." He emphatically denied that the American Loan and Trust Company had in any way or to any extent become the financial sponsor of the "Diamond Company Limited."

An unsuccessful effort was then made to find Roswell W. Keene, whose office is in the Stewart Builder and Company Limited."

An ansuccessful effort was then made to find Roswell W. Keene, whose office is in the Stewart Building at Broadway and Chambers st. Mr. Keene was not in, and nobody connected with the building knew when he would be. Altogether the investigations did not result in a brilliant showing for a company of which the prospectus declares "the capital stock to be $2,000,000 in 20,000 shares of $100 creb," followed by this announcement: "Sobscibers are required to pay ten per cent of the par value of each share subscribed for at the time of making such subscription." The business of the company is said to be "the mining of diamonds and other precious stones, the cutting and working, the purchase and sale, the setting and the loaning of the same for the purposes of gain and profit, and the enlivation of art; and the manufacture, purchase and sale of time pieces and jewelry generally."

A SKULL FRACTURED WITH A GLASS.

A voning man came into the Eighth Precinct Police Station yesterday morning with the blood streaming from a bad cut in his head and asked for a surgeon. He was informed that no surgeon was there. He refused to give any explanation as to the cause of his injuries and declined to give his name. He went to St. Vincent's Hospital to have his head dressed. Shortly after his departure Officer Sheridan, of the Eighth Precinct, brought in as a prisoner Eugene O'Sullivan, of No. 25 Dominick-St., who had been pointed out to the officer as having his a young man named William Taylor in the lead with a glass during a fight at No. 25 Dominick-st., which is a boarding-house. A messenger was sent to the hospital to see about the young man who had come to the station, and it was discovered that he was William Taylor, and that he had received a compound fracture of the skull, which will keep him confined for several weeks if it does not result tatally. O'Sullivan wassent to the hospital to have Taylor identify him.

MR. WALES DEFENDS THE PARK BOARD.

THE REPORT OF THE COMMISSIONERS OF ACCOUNTS

CRITICISED.

The Park Commissioners are not well pleased with the report presented by the Commissioners of Accounts to the Mayor, though its general tone is favorable to them. Commissioner Wales expressed these views:

I have no special desire to criticise the report, but I think in some respecial it is open to very severe criticism. The Commissioners credit the department with beneaty and efficiency, but condemn past massures and a past administration of the Board. The Park Department of the Board. In a report on the condition of the fact that it was theroughly out of our. fair instance of the Lipiders of Accounts should have permitted themselves to be roaked on succeptibility to the Department.

With regard to the licensing of privileges of the parks, I am not prepared to say who her the report is not right and whether the better way would not be to let them out to the highest bidoers. The present system was established many years ago, and five per cent on the gross receipts was then believed to be a proper tax upon the privileges. It must be remembered that many of these are of a miner and unimportant character, yielding only a small revenue through portlons of the year. Most of those who have them have been in the employ of the Department for years. They are persons of reliable and wor by character, which is of itself as important thing in the paces they fill. For example, the old hostelry at the High Bridge Park was taken in 1873 by the late Mr. Schedler spen nearly $10,000 on it for repairs and farmiture, and during mine years he recovered his outlay and made a tar living, but not with out a struggle and much self-senial. This is only one of numerous instances. The Mr. St. Vincent re-taurant has just been fluited up by the livenes, Mr. Conklin, at an expense, I am told, of $15,000. This is to the advantage of the parks. The system of contracts has yet to be tried, and I doubt if ten per cent could be obtained from the gross receipts of many of the privileges.

PRIESTS EXPELLED FROM COSTA RICA.

Don Bernardo Auguste Thiel, Boman Catholic Bishop of Costa Rica, tegether with the Jesuit Fathers Jose Valenzuela, Luis J. Espana, and Luis Hidalgo, the secretary of the Bishop arrived in this city last week and made a short sejourn at the Jesuit College in Sixteenth-st., between Fifth and Sixth-aves. The prelate and his companions had been expelled from Costa Rica by a decree of General Fernandez, the President of that Republic, who based his action upon an act of the National Legislature which was passed on July 19. Fourteen other members of the clergy were included in the same decree, all of whom went from Costa Rica to Jamaica. Bishop Thiel while in this city stated that the expulsion of himself and his clergy had been due to their effort to introduce religious instruction into the schools of Costa Rica, and especially into the college at San Jose, the capital. He was, however, not disposed to talk freely about the matter, and after stating the reason given for the expulsion, said that be beped the action of the Government would soon be rescinded, and that he would be permitted to return, with his clergy, to his see. Father Espana, on the other hand, spoke without reserve, and was bitter in his denunciation of the Government for its action. The priests, he says, have done all that ever has been done by any one for the cause of colucation in Costa Rica, and he mentioned especially the college at San Jose, erected and sustained by the Jesuits, where 500 youths are always under instruction. Bishop Thiel has for several years been a correspondent of the Smithsonian Institution at Washington and has contribited to its one valuable papers on the flora and fainms of Central America. He has gone to Washington for a brief visit, and his clergymen have also left the city.

MURDER OR SUICIDE 1

The police of the Sixth Precinct are puzzled as to whether the death of Annie Mulyaney, age twenty-eight, of No. i Mulberry st., early yesterday morning, is a marder or suicide. The voing woman had been spending the evening in the company of Alice McGee, Louisia Meyers. Juano Jeddio and Paul Pulca in her room. The entire party had been drinking. During the evening Jeddio, who was Annie's lover, paid marked attention to one of the other girls. This aronsed Annie's lover, paid marked attention to one of the house. Shortly afterwards loud screams and some fliquer was drink, her jealousy and as more fliquer was drink, her jealousy necame so great that she put Alice and Louise out of the house, Shortly afterwards loud screams and semado a strongle were heard and in a few minutes Annie's body lay lifeless on the sidewalk, where it's had failen from the third tory window. Jeddio and Pulca were arrested. They say that after the departure of the two other women Annie's pelotors rage passed all bounds, and after upbraiding Jeddio for his faithlessness she went to the window and before they could interfere had thown herself out. They were both held and in the Jefferson Market Police Court were remanded until this morning. The body of the dead woman was taken to the Morgae.

TWO MEN BADLY STABBED IN THE STREET.

John Donohue, twenty-eight years old, of No. 530 West Sixty-first-st., a bag sewer in T. C. Eastman's slaughter house, with Charles Conner, of No. 543 West Sixtieth-st., were in Quinlan's liquor store, No. 549 West Sixtieth-st., on Saturday night, with some friends. John Rountree, forty-three years old, of No. 555 West Sixtieth-st., who is an engineer at the slaughter house, came in about 12 o'clock, and asked Donohue to drink with him. Donohue refused and Rountree left the place, after threatening to whip Donohue. Shortly afterward Donohue went away. He met Devra Maguire, a friend of Rountree's who renewed the quarrel, and after some talk Donohue and Maguire clinebed. Rountree ran up and struck Donohue on the head with a knife, inflicting an ugly wound, and fracturing his skull. Conners then joined in the light to help Donohue but was soon put out of the way by a thrust of Rountree's knife in the left side. As soon as they had seen the result of their work Rounteer and Maguire ran away. Officer Kear of the Twenty-second Precinct had the wonded men sent to Roosevelt Hospital. He then arrested Rountree at his home. In the Yorkville Folice Court the man was held without bail to await the result of the injuries to the two men. Conners lies at Roosevelt Hospital in a critical condition. Donohue insisted on being taken home, and is under the care of his family physician, Doctor Buchanan. TWO MEN BADLY STABBED IN THE STREET.

A PRISONER HARD TO SUBDUE.

George Doyle, age twenty-eight, fell in a fit at Thompson and Spring-sts., yesterday afternoon. Officer Holmes of the Lighth precinct summoned an ambulance and while he was trying to keep the crowd back from the sick man, he was assaulted without warning or provocation by Henry Schrank, a notorious person. The officer defended himself as well as he could and after a hard fight succeeded in partly subduing Schrank, who is a much heavier man than he. Some of the bystanders ran to the station and informed Sergeant Carpenter that Holmes was being "laid out." The Sergeant at once sent four men to the scene of the fight. They met Holmes and his prisoner on the way to the station. After they arrived and the pedigree of the prisoner was being taken he again showed fight, and it took the combined efforts of four officers to get the prisoner into a cell. He said boastfully as he was being taken down stairs: "Fil be out of this all right in the morning." A PRISONER HARD TO SUBDUE. ARRIVAL OF THREE SWIFT SHIPS.

THE BEACHES CROWDED WITH PEOPLE.

BEAUTIES OF LONG BEACH. A strong south wind fretled the ocean with "white caps" yesterday and drove upon Manhattan Beach great billows which were broken by the piles into clouds of spray that deluged the promenades in front of the Oriental and Manhattan Beach hotels.

"It is the greatest day of the season," was the manimously expressed, opinion of the hotel men, wailway officials, and others interested in the mudurities of the island. The number of people who were there was variously estimated at from 70,000 to 100,000 and one enthusiast placed it as high as 150,000. The truth probably lies somewhere between 70,000 and so,000, of which number probably 25,000 went down, by the various lines to Manhattan Beach. A sermon was preached in the morning on the piazza of the Manhattan Beach Hotel by the Rev. A. S. Walker, of Spencer, Mass, who is a guest of the Oriental Hotel, At both these hotels Saturday was the best paying day, so far, of the season. The total number of permanent guests is 850 in the two hotels. Among those at the Oriental are Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Sellers, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Challin, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. an earthquake I' said Mr. 1-told-you-so, all the week.

Friday, Saturday and yesterday were red letter days for seaside resorts and they balanced the ledger account against many that have been cool enough to keep folks at home.

The sea never reached more hungrily landward or lathered the sand more pretiilly than it did yesterday. It was lampy and the stiff breeze lifted the white caps here and there and everywhere and drove them in a mad race to the beach where they playfully slapped each other and sputtered on the said, turning their blue into white and rushing far in to liex the shores of spectators, too much entranced to be on their grand. The chattering of numerous bathers imnigled with the langiture of the waves and it was hard to say which enjoyed the fun most, those who role the surf or those who sat on the beaches and lifted their feet for the water to spread under and be drank in by the ever thirsty sand.

spread under and be strank in by the ever thirsty sand.

The business of the hotel continues to increase as the season grows old and no one ever regrets belowing goin there to spend a day, week or month. During the prevailing pleasant weather Glein Island's many charms attract thousands of pleasure seekers who thoroughly enjoy the varied attractions of Mr. Starin's delightful island retreat. The boat service of this island seems compete in every particular and visitors do not need with any annoyances. A large fleet of steamers run continuously on week days, to which four extra boats are added on Sundays, thus enabling guests to enjoy a charming sail up the Sound in cerfect comfort and safety.

STRIKING BRICKLAYERS REJOICING. STRIKING BRICKLAYERS REJOICING.

The happiness of the striking bricklayers and laborers was increased yesterday by the announcement that Contractor King and Peter Testevin & Sons, had concluded to grant the 0 hours demanded and that their men could go to work today. The bricklayers and laborers some time ago made complaint that the work that was being done by the nonnon men was unsafe. The Inspector of fluiddings, after examining the work, said that he could only interfere if it was sufficiently out of plumb to be dangerous and that that, so far as he had seen, the work was not dangerous. The District-Aftorony has been requested to give a legal opinion as to whether or not the Inspector could not interfere if the walls of a bailding were not properly laid. The German bricklayers spector could not interfere if the walls of a building were not properly land. The German bricklayers said that only two men were on strike in their union. The laborers say that they have only a few men. The framers say that they have two strikes on hand and that a good many of their men are out on account of the bricklayers' strike. The house painters have given $100 to the bricklayers' $100 to the stone masons and $100 to the laborers. The strikers are certain now that the backbone of the strike is broken and that by the middle of this week all their men will be at work.

A NEGRO KILLS A WOMAN AND HIMSELF.

A part of the town of Harrison, Westchester County, a few wiles east of the village of White Plains, was the scene of a murder and suicide year terday morning. A colored woman, Elizabeth in Barker, age forty-eight, although apparently much younger, has been living for several years past with John Brown, colored, about thirty-five to forty years old, of whom, it is said, she was getting tired and had resolved to leave him and live with another colored man named Thomas Tillott. Mrs. Barker, who was a widow, visited White Plains on Saturday with Tillott. At 10 p. m. the two went in a hack to Mrs. Barker's house. Brown broke in the door at 2 a. m. and, after upbraiding Mrs. Barker for preferring Tillott to him shot ber in the abdomen, causing almost instant death. It is said that he shot twice at Tillott without effect, and that a year ago he shot and dangerously wounded Tillott. Brown, after killing Mrs. Barker, went off, purchased half a pint of luquor and drank it, and white under its influence returned to the house at 10 a. m., not knowing that he had killed Mrs. Barker. On finding her dead, he shot himself in the forchead and died in a few hours. Coroner Tell arrived shortly infereward to hold an inquest upon the body of Mrs. Barker, and had two cases for investigation instead of one. Both bodiess were removed to the morgue of Undertaker Ryan, at White Plains, and inquests will be hold upon them at 9 o'clock this morning at the County Court House.

One of the wounds was in his neck and was at first thought to be dangerous. Higgins is locked up.

NEWARK.

All the liquor shops in East Newark were closed yesterday by order of Police Justice Sullivan, who was instructed by a unanimous vote of the Common Council to enforce the Sunday law. Policemen told the beer sellers to close up at 12 o'clock o'clock on Saturday and remain closed until 12 o'clock last night, and the order was strictly obeyed. The Rev Father O'Connor, the lender of the Sunday law agitation, was pleased because the increase in the church collections proved that the people are heartily supporting him in his efforts to suppress low drinking places. The Rev, Mr. Carver, of the Episcopal Church, congratulated his people also that for the first time in the history of the town no beer shop was open.

THE CHOIR SMOKED OUT.

There was an unpleasant little incident in one of the large Swiss hotels last week; caused by the local peason parson. In the hotel reterred to there is a large smoking room, which on Sundays is given up wholly to the chaptain for his different acrylics, which, at intervals, last from S.a. in. until 9 p. m. Not content, however, with this concession, the reverend gentleman sent out notices that he would hold meetings for choir practice in the smoking room on Saturdays. This the smokers naturally resented, more especially as the common civility of asking their leave had been omitted. The result was that when the parson, with his concomitant female flock, arrived to hold their singing practice, they found the room full of smoke and smokers, who resolutely held their ground, and declined to be turned out of the room reserved specially for their use. There was a good deal of acrimonious expression on the part of the would be usurpers, but the parson saw his mistake and withdrew, and the matter happily ended, as it had begun—in smoke.
